

List of figures, maps and plates

Figures

1	Conceptual model of Insana	11
2	Population of Noebeba (now part of kecamatan Amanuban Selatan)	30
3	Directional coordinates in Amanuban	45
4	Historical population data for southern Amanuban	47
5	Conceptual outline of Nabuasa political domain	115
6	The genealogical basis for Nabuasa expansion	118
7	Expanded structure of the Nabuasa domain	120
8	Brand markings (malak)	134
9	Internal order of precedence within the kanaf	165
10	Kin categories in Amanuban	170
11	Prescribed marriage categories	171
12	Cross-cousin marriage	173
13	Diagrammatic tree of alliance	181
14	The return of the young banana and the young sugar cane	182
15	Marriage statistics in four settlements	184
16	Lada-Ataupah marriages	196
17	Origins of Puai households in Oe Aiyo	209
18	Marriage links between Nubatonis and Puai in Oe Aiyo	211
19	Marriages links between Puai, Lopo and Lasa	213
20	Households in Maunfunu	218
21	Relationships between households in Oe Sebot	221
22	Diagram of the house	234
23	Diagram of roof structure	236

Maps

1	Former political domains of West Timor (1960)	28
2	Southern Amanuban villages: formerly Noebeba	28
3	Approximate path of Nabuasa migration	87
4	Expanded domain of Noebeba	126
5	Extent of raiding by Nabuasa (nineteenth century)	139
6	Southwest Amanuban in 1919	151
7	Kae settlement	193

Plates

1	Man and Timorese pony	front cover
2	Narrating the gate and the path	78
3	Senior Nabuasa elders with author	101
4	Ume kbubu' (Amanuban Selatan)	239
5	Meto house (recently constructed)	240
6	Arrival of the wife-takers	265
7	Shutting the gate/closing the siki	266
8	Meeting at the gate	268
9	Entering the compound	270
10	The marriage gifts	272
11	Exchanging the gifts	273
12	Claiming the bride/uprooting the siki	274
13	Meat distribution at funeral	281