

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Pages could be devoted to merely listing all those who have contributed to this work. The unfailing courtesy and professionalism of archivists and academics in the Netherlands must not go unmentioned. I particularly wish to thank S. Plantinga and the staff of the Algemeen Rijksarchief; Dr. L. Kamphuis and the staff at the Sectie Militaire Geschiedenis; Dr. D. Engelen of the Binnenlandse Veiligheidsdienst; and Dr. Wim Klinkert at the Koninklijke Militaire Academie. I also wish to thank Prof. Dr. J.Th.M. Bank of the University of Leiden for his valuable advice. Dr. Karel Berkhoff and – especially – Drs. Marcella Mulder at Brill Academic Publishers guided this project to its completion, and I am grateful for all their work. Augusta State University gave me time and resources for the project, and I particularly wish to thank my department chair, Dr. K. Wayne Mixon, for his unstinting support. My father, Dr. H.O.R. van Tuyll van Serooskerken, edited the project and provided many insights from his encyclopedic knowledge of Dutch history. The project could not have been completed without the patience and support of my wife, Debra, and daughter, Laura.
