

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to extend my warmest thanks to Professor Jonathan I. Charney of Vanderbilt University for his valuable comments on the drafts of this book, which helped me to clarify numerous points of substance and structure. I would also like to thank my colleagues and friends of the Division for Ocean Affairs and the Law of the Sea, United Nations, who, through their quality publications, kept me abreast of new developments in the law of the sea emerging after the entry into force of the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea. I am also grateful to them for their permission to reprint certain materials already published in their Law of the Sea Bulletin, on the condition that I explicitly disclose the source.

I am deeply indebted to Professor Park Choon-ho, Judge of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea, and Mr. Kim Jae-chul, Chairman of the Korea International Trade Association, who not only inspired me to complete the book, but also breathed life into it. Their constant encouragement and advice over the years have made it possible for me to dedicate my scarce time and resources to research on the subject. Deep and special thanks also go to Mr. John G. Robinson, Ms. Natalie Coe and Ms. Nathania Verlaque, who exactly proofread my manuscript. In addition, I sincerely appreciate the unstinting support and encouragement of Mr. Chung Soo-il, Mr. Chung Yong-in, Mr. Shin Man-woo, Mr. Kim Young-yoon and Mr. Lee Hyeong-no.

I also thank my brother Park In-gu and brothers-in-law Dr. Lee Yong-kuk and Dr. Kim Young-choon, who gave limitless advice and suggestions during my protracted periods of preoccupation and deliberation. Their encouragement has been a constant source of strength for me. I am particularly indebted to my long-suffering family – Jee-hyeon, Do-young and Jae-young – who made countless sacrifices during my extended research on the subject, and who instilled in me the motivation to complete this work.

Finally, I wish to state that the ideas and views in this book are advanced in my personal capacity only, and do not represent those of the Government of the Republic of Korea.
