

FOREWORD

The chapters of this book were read and discussed at a conference on “Criticism and Defense of Rationality in Contemporary Philosophy” held in Radziejowice, Poland. It was sponsored by the Polish Academy of Sciences and the Department of Philosophy at Rochester Institute of Technology (RIT), Rochester, New York, with support from The Center for East European Dialogue and Development at RIT.

The Radziejowice conference was the second in a series, the first being “Philosophy in Post-Communist Europe” held at RIT. It is our hope that the succession of conferences will continue, alternating between the United States and Central and Eastern Europe.

This book and the book from the other conference are the first two of the special series of the Value Inquiry Book Series on Post-Communist European Thought. The intention is that other volumes will follow.
