

FOREWORD

This Fourth Edition of Searching the Law—The States is intended to supplement Searching the Law, 3d edition. We have begun to add practice-type materials other than books to this bibliography, as we are seeing an increase in audio-tapes; CD-ROM; computer disks; and videos that enrich the legal research potential. When publishers make publications available on-line, we are noting the occasion.

I wish to thank my secretary, Sharon Kinsley, for her assistance and especially the technical support, and my staff for helping to clean up the myriad of detail problems. A special thanks to Joel Fishman and Frank Bae for their calling new materials to my attention. I want to thank my wife, Nancy, for her never-ending supply of encouragement.
