

COMENIUS and the
LOW COUNTRIES

THIS BOOK was published under the sponsorship of the Foundation "Centre of Documentation Respublica Literaria Neerlandica". The Foundation's aims are collecting and publishing data for the study of personalities, currents, and works from the Republic of Letters in the Low Countries during the sixteenth, seventeenth, and eighteenth centuries. The Foundation's governing body acts as editorial board for its series of publications, assisted by Professor Wytze G. Hellinga, of the Institute of Neophilology and Neo-Latin at the University of Amsterdam, in an advisory capacity. In the series, REPUBLICA LITERARIA NEERLANDICA, both documents and monographs are published, in English or in any other generally accessible language.

T·G· M A S A R Y K The Hussites, the Brethren, and the Evangelical Czechs kept up lively intercourse with the Germans, who received them well, and also with the Dutch, the Swiss, the English, and the Swedes; yet in all lands they worked for the liberation of their Fatherland. In defence of this people, Comenius carried on a true world policy of education
