

IX. MISSIONARY EDUCATION IN IRAN	114
Medical Education Provided by Missionary Hospitals	124
X. THE ROLE OF EDUCATION IN THE RECONSTRUCTION OF IRAN	127
Appendix: IMPORTANT LAWS AFFECTING IRANIAN EDUCATION	134
Constitutional Government and Educational Regulations	134
Administrative Law of the Ministry of Education Arts and Endowment 1910 A.D.	135
Fundamental Law of the Ministry of Education, 1911	139
The law Providing for Foreign Study	142
Laws Concerning of the Establishment of Institutions of Higher Learning	142
Other Educational Acts	142

LIST OF TABLES

Table	Page
1 Graduates of Higher Institutions in Iran, 1851-1958	28
2 Colleges in the Provinces, 1956-57	28
3 Distribution of Iranian Civil Service Employees	33
4 A Percentage Distribution of Civil Service Employees by Rank: a Comparison of 1926 and 1957	34
5 A Comparison of the Growth of Elementary Schools in Iran, 1925-40	57
6 Primary Education in Urban and Rural Areas in Iran, 1956	59
7 Secondary Education in Iran, 1924-25	64
8 The Growth of Secondary Education, 1928-58	68
9 Secondary Education in Urban and Rural Areas in Iran, 1956	73
10 The fields of Specialization Pursued by Iranian Students Abroad (1928-34) in Preparation for University Positions in Iran	87
11 Distribution of Students of Teachers College, University of Tehran	89
12 Growth of Normal Schools in Iran, 1941-58	91
13 Teacher Needs in Relation to the Number of Elementary and High School Age Children in Iran, 1958	95
14 Schools of the Church Mission Society, 1937	115
15 American Presbyterian Mission Schools in Iran, 1836-1934	121
16 American Presbyterian Mission Schools in Iran in 1934	121