

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Peter E. Herzog, B.A., Hobart College, 1952; LL.B., Syracuse University, 1955; Editor-in-Chief, Syracuse Law Review, 1954–1955; LL.M., Columbia University, 1956; Member, Bar of New York, since 1957; Deputy Assistant Attorney General, New York State Department of Law, 1956–57; Assistant Attorney General, New York State Department of Law, 1957–58; Legal Assistant, New York State Joint Legislative Committee on Metropolitan Areas Studies, 1958–1960; Professor of Law, Syracuse University.

Martha Weser, Docteur en Droit, University of Paris, 1951; Docteur en Droit International Privé, University of Paris, 1952; Assistant Professor of Law, University of Brussels; Member, Belgian-Netherlands-Luxembourg Commission for the Study of the Unification of Laws; Member, Committee of Experts of the European Economic Community Charged With the Drafting of a Treaty on Bankruptcy; Collaborator, Revue Critique de Droit International Privé; Author, Etude Critique du Traité Franco-Belge du 8 Juillet 1899 (Paris and Brussels, 1951).