

Acknowledgments

The present study has been prepared under the auspices of the Åbo Akademi University Institute for Human Rights. We wish to thank the staff of the Institute, and in particular Johanna Bondas, who has been instrumental in the editing process, and Harriet Nyback-Alanen, who has once again helped us in tracing references.

The Academy of Finland has in many ways given much appreciated financial support.

Among the numerous individuals who have contributed with their help or insights, we would like to make a special mention of Professor Gunnar Rosén, former Deputy Secretary-General of the Finnish Red Cross, Professor Jouko Vahtola, University of Oulu, and Dr. Martti Ahti, University of Helsinki. We are also indebted to Theresa Swinehart from the Norwegian Institute of Human Rights for having checked the English language.

We are very pleased that Dr. Jiří Toman from the Henry Dunant Institute in Geneva took an active interest in the project and that an eminent publisher, Martinus Nijhoff, included the work in their series.
