

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This project was supported by grants from the Oklahoma Foundation for the Humanities, Southwestern Bell, and the University of Oklahoma Research Council. I am grateful to the Deutsche Literaturarchiv, Marbach/Neckar, and especially to Ingrid Grüninger, for providing me with information and materials over the years.

This book could not have been completed without the professional support and personal encouragement of several people. I am most grateful to Richard Beck for the many illuminating conversations concerning the project. Alan Leidner and Ingrid Stipa have my thanks for intensive editorial work and advice. I also thank Ron Phelps for his editorial help, and Karin Wurst and Arnd Bohm for their knowledgeable readings of an early version of the manuscript.

Chapters one, four, and six were published in earlier versions in The German Quarterly, The Lessing Yearbook, and Seminar. I am grateful to their editors for granting permission to include this material here.

My final thank you goes to Keith Busby, without whose expert advice and assistance this book would not yet exist.
