

RHETORIC OF THE PEOPLE

“Is there any better
or equal hope in the world?”

Edited and with Introductions by

Harold Barrett

California State University

Hayward

RODOPI NV

AMSTERDAM 1974

ISBN-90-6203-001-7

To Professor BOWER ALY

Whose life and work favorably affect the lives of many people

Table of Contents

INTRODUCTION	9
I. RHETORIC OF THE PEOPLE: PERSPECTIVE IN THEORY
Introduction	15
Bower Aly
The Contemporary Rhetoric of Politics and Statecraft . . .	17
Edward Rogge
Evaluating the Ethics of a Speaker in a Democracy	25
Arthur B. Miller and John D. Bee
Enthymemes: Body and Soul	39
Richard Murphy
Parliamentary Procedure for the Ordinary Citizen	57
II. ON THE AMERICAN FRONTIER
Introduction	85
Albert L. Lewis
Every Man His Own Orator: The Impact of the Frontier on American Public Address	87
Frances Lea McCurdy
Credibility on the Missouri Frontier	111
David Arlington
A Mechanic's No-Gas Rhetoric	133
III. IN CAMPAIGNS AND MOVEMENTS
Introduction	147
James L. Golden and Richard E. Crable
Student Campaign Speaking for Eugene McCarthy in the Presidential Primary Contest of 1968	149

Wayne C. Eubank and Cullen B. Owens

"Second-class Citizenship": An Address by Tom L. Popejoy at State Convention of the American Legion, Carlsbad, New Mexico, July 15, 1962 189

Goodwin Berquist and James Greenwood

Protest Against Racism: "The Birth of a Nation" in Ohio 221

Les Wallace

Impulse for a Pure and Safe America: The American Protective Association 241

IV. IN VARIOUS SITUATIONS

Introduction 271

Waldo W. Braden

"Repining Over an Irrevocable Past": The Ceremonial Orator in a Defeated Society, 1865-1900 273

Everett Lee Hunt

Lincoln's Rhetorical Triumph at Cooper Union 303

Lucile Folse Aly

John G. Neihardt and Rhetorical Poetry 311