

FIGURES, TABLES, AND MAPS

Figures

- Figure 1: Conversion to Islam in al-Andalus
- Figure 2: Typology of Christian and Muslim Enclaves in Medieval Spain
- Figure 3: Components of an Animal-drawn Noria
- Figure 4: Horizontal Mill with Inclined Chute
- Figure 5: Tank Mill (Molino de cubo)
- Figure 6: Maslama and his School
- Figure 7: The Andalusí Agronomical School
- Figure 8: Ratio of Christian and Muslim Scientists
- Figure 9: Comparative Conversion Curves

Tables

- Table 1: Edible Crop Introduced by the Arabs
- Table 2: Andalusí Terms for Wheat
- Table 3: Artisan Nisbas of Andalusí Sufis (Thirteenth Century)
- Table 4: Indicators of Structural Gain or Loss in al-Andalus
- Table 5: Medieval Castilian Chemical Terminology
- Table 6: Arabisms in Castilian through the Thirteenth Century, by Category

Map

- Map 1: Scholarly Interaction between al-Andalus and the Magrib, 12th–13th centuries A.D.