

Acknowledgments

The author is grateful to his colleague Dr. Eugen Kullmann, who first recommended the works of Albertus Magnus to him twenty-one years ago, on the occasion of the seven hundredth anniversary of the philosopher's death. His friend Dr. Robert Berchman suggested the publication of this book. Dr. Richard Holmgren and the Academic Support Committee of Allegheny College provided the money for the "word-processing" of the typewritten manuscript; this was done by Brenda Metheny, Pat Kantz, Linda Mauro, and Ruth Dunton. Brenda Metheny drew the diagrams in Chapter I; Steven Rusnica drew those in Chapters II and III.
