

Acknowledgments

The author is grateful to Dr. Robert Berchman, who first suggested the publication of this book. Dr. Richard Holmgren and the Academic Support Committee of Allegheny College provided the money for the preparation of the manuscript, which was accomplished by the secretaries Brenda Metheny, Pat Kantz, Linda Mauro, and Ruth Dunton. Steven Rusnica drew the diagrams in Chapter III; all others were by Brenda Metheny. Librarians Cynthia Burton and Linda Ernst obtained books and journal articles for the author over a period of many years. Dr. Sonja Brentjes answered many questions directed to her by e-mail; she is responsible for much that is right, and for nothing that is wrong, in this and the previous work [95]. Many colleagues and students were generous with their help when it was needed; worthy of special mention for their assistance are Marcus David Bittman and Dr. A. Behrooz Afrasiabi. Without the advice of Dr. Afrasiabi, the discussion of all things Persian would have been below mediocrity.
