THE INTERNATIONAL OMBUDSMAN INSTITUTE

The International Ombudsman Institute is a non-profit organization whose objects include promotion of the concept of ombudsmanship, encouragement and support of research in the ombudsman field, development of educational programmes associated with ombudsmanship, the organization of international ombudsmanship conferences, and provision of a resource centre for storage and dissemination of information about the ombudsman institution.

The International Ombudsman Yearbook, published annually by the International Ombudsman Institute and Kluwer Law International, is a multidisciplinary publication devoted to the study of the concept of ombudsmanship and the institution of the ombudsman, either in its classic or adapted form.

Contributions to the body of research and literature in the ombudsman field are welcomed from various disciplines including law, public administration and political science.

GUIDELINES TO AUTHORS

1. We invite the submission of articles to be considered for publication. In general, articles should not exceed 100 double-spaced, typed pages in length, inclusive of endnotes.
2. Papers to be considered for publication must be sent to the Editor, The International Ombudsman Yearbook, International Ombudsman Institute, Room 205D Weir Library, Faculty of Law, University of Alberta, Edmonton, Alberta T6G 2H5, Canada. Submission of a paper implies that it comprises original unpublished work. If possible, please submit the paper with a copy on computer diskette. The I.O.I. can use Wordperfect 5, 5.1, 6.1, 8 & 9.
3. Contributors are requested to keep an accurate copy of the manuscript in their possession since the Yearbook cannot assume responsibility for the safety of any manuscript sent to it or undertake to return it.
4. Manuscripts (text and endnotes) should be typewritten on one side of the paper only, double-spaced. Endnotes should be placed at the end of the text. All pages should be numbered consecutively. Titles and headings should be short. Extensive quotations in the text should be indented.
5. Cases and statutes, etc. should be cited accurately. Generally, please see the Yearbook for house style. Contributors are responsible for the accuracy of all citations and quotations and are requested to check them with particular care.
6. The Editor reserves the right to make alterations and corrections to conform both with the general style of the publication and accepted rules of grammar and syntax.
7. Galley proofs will be sent to authors upon request only and should be corrected clearly and returned to the address given by the date stated.
8. Authors will be provided with one of free copy of the Yearbook containing their contribution. Authors should supply the address to which the copy of the Yearbook should be sent.
