

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This book deals with a topic that is of great significance and it has taken several years to develop and complete. During that time we have been grateful for the assistance and support of a number of people.

The first of these is our outstanding research assistant Kathleen Kelly whose work was exemplary. We are also grateful to Professor Tim Lindsay for his encouragement and advice and for making funding available through the Asian Law Centre to assist with work on the book and to the Faculty of Law, University of Melbourne for its financial support. Chris Holt gave us wise advice in the early stages of the project, and we thank him for this.

In the initial stages of the project we were given direction and support by a number of generous academics in this field including Patricia Martinez, Juliet Sheen, Lori Beaman, Marion Maddox, Alice Tay, Jim Richardson, Virginia Hooker, Veronica Taylor, and Evalyn Ursua.

We are grateful to all at Martinus Nijhoff for their prompt and professional handling of the production of the book and in particular to Lindy Melman and Leonieke Aalders. We also acknowledge Angela Costi for her fine work on the index.

Finally, we are grateful to our families: Brendan, Gabriel and Miriam (for Amanda) and Stephen, Caitlin and Michael (for Carolyn) for their on-going support and love.
