

Transliteration

We have used a simplified transliteration of non-European words and names. Many such names are of household celebrity, and we preferred not to alter them for the sake of the professional transliteration of specialised journals. We have also kept the system of citation in the various contributions as generally provided by their authors.

CIMEL Book Series

This book is the first title in the CIMEL Book Series, a new publication venture between the Centre of Islamic & Middle Eastern Law at SOAS and Kluwer Law International. The Series Editors are His Honour Judge Eugene Cotran and Dr Chibli Mallat, though each title will have its own author or authors or editors in suitable cases.
