

Function and Meaning in Buddhist Art

GONDA INDOLOGICAL STUDIES

published under the auspices of the J. Gonda Foundation,
Royal Netherlands Academy of Arts and Sciences

VOLUME III

Editor

H. W. Bodewitz, Leiden

Editorial Board

H. T. Bakker / D. H. A. Kolff

K. R. van Kooij / T. Vetter

Advisory Board

C. Caillat, Paris / R. E. Emmerick, Hamburg

J. Ensink, Groningen / R. F. Gombrich, Oxford

J. C. Heesterman, Leiden / D. Shulman, Jerusalem

Ch. Vaudeville, Paris / J. Williams, Berkeley

Function and Meaning in Buddhist Art

Proceedings of a seminar held at Leiden University
21-24 October 1991

EDITED BY K. R. van Kooij & H. van der Veere

EGBERT FORSTEN • GRONINGEN

1995

Cover design: Françoise Berserik

Cover illustration: Shangton Chogyi Lama portrait (detail). Painting on cloth

This book was published with financial support from the J. Gonda Foundation (Amsterdam)

ISBN 9069800799

Copyright © 1995 Egbert Forsten, Groningen, The Netherlands

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted, in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise, without the prior written permission of the publisher.

Table of contents

Preface — ix

Introduction — xi

PART I Ritual function

Buddhist art in medieval China: the ecclesiastical view — i

Erik Zürcher

Relics and reliquaries, texts and artefacts — 21

J. Fontein

Remarks on festivals and altars in early Buddhist art — 33

Karel R. van Kooij

Pilgrimage and the evidence of Bodhgaya's images — 45

Janice Leoshko

Between men and gods — 59

Claudine Bautze-Picron

Early portrait painting in Tibet — 81

Jane Casey Singer

The role of the icon in different layers of Shingon ritual, exemplified by the figure of Aizen-Myōō — 101

Roger Goepper

Five Secrets maṇḍala — 111

H. Hunter

PART II Intended meaning

The depiction of Māra in early Buddhist art — 125

Prithivi K. Agrawala

Mañjuśrī and his sword — 135

Adalbert Gail

Lokeśvaras in Nepal. A living tradition? — 139

Margriet Blom

Ruixiang at Dunhuang — 149

Roderick Whitfield

The role of legend in Koryō iconography (1). The Kṣitigarbha triad in Engakuji — 157

Youngsook Pak

The role of narrative sculpture and painting in Thailand — 167

Nandana Chutiwongs

PART III Comparisons

Buddhist art and ritual: a view from the west — 179

Robert W. Scheller

Comparative iconology: an ethological approach — 197

Jan Baptist Bedaux

Index of geographical and Buddhist names — 205