

Scope

The Journal of Muslims in Europe (JOME) is devoted to publishing articles dealing with contemporary issues on Islam and Muslims in Europe from all disciplines and across the whole region, as well as historical studies of relevance to the present. The focus is on articles offering cross-country comparisons or with significant theoretical or methodological relevance to the field. Case studies with innovative approaches or on under-explored issues, and studies of policy and policy development in the various European institutions, including the European courts, and trans-national movements and social and cultural processes are also welcome. The Journal also welcomes book reviews. All contributions to the journal must display a substantial use of primary-source material and must be original. The editors also encourage younger scholars to submit contributions. The Journal of Muslims in Europe has a double-blind peer review system.

Ethical and Legal Conditions

The publication of a manuscript in a peer-reviewed journal is expected to follow standards of ethical behavior for all parties involved in the act of publishing: authors, editors, and reviewers. Authors, editors, and reviewers should thoroughly acquaint themselves with Brill's publication ethics, which may be downloaded here: brill.com/page/ethics/publication-ethics-cope-compliance.

Online Submission

JOME uses online submission only. Authors should submit their manuscript online via the Editorial Manager (EM) online submission system at: editorialmanager.com/jome.

Double-Anonymous Peer Review

JOME uses a double-anonymous peer review system, which means that manuscript author(s) do not know who the reviewers are, and that reviewers do not know the names of the author(s). When you submit your article via Editorial Manager, you will be asked to submit a separate title page that includes the full title of the manuscript, the names and complete contact details of all authors, the abstract, keywords, and any acknowledgement texts. This page will not be accessible to the referees. All other files (manuscript, figures, tables, etc.) should not contain any information concerning author names, institutions, etc. The names of these files and the document properties should also be anonymized.

Contact Address

For any questions or problems relating to your manuscript please contact Prof. Dr. Thijs Sunier, j.t.sunier@vu.nl. For eventual questions about Editorial Manager, authors can also contact the Brill EM Support Department at: support-em@brill.com.

Instructions for Authors

Book Reviews

Please contact Dr Egdūnas Račius about books for review, at: egdunas.racius@vdu.lt

File Format

Contributions should be submitted in either Microsoft Word or Word for Mac, using Unicode fonts. The use of non-Unicode fonts should be discussed with the editor beforehand.

Submission Requirements

Language

Manuscripts should be written in English; the spelling (either British or American) should be consistent throughout.

All the articles will be English edited. This is the responsibility of JOME and will be done at Brill's expense. Details such as consistent referencing, consistent use of spelling of 'foreign' words, consistent use of acronyms, style forms, is the responsibility of the author(s).

Transliteration

Diacritics will not be used in transliteration of Turkish, Arabic or Persian.

Length

Manuscripts should not normally exceed 8500 words including abstract, keywords, footnotes and reference list. If there are deviations from this general rule, the editor should be consulted. If the word count of the revised version of the manuscript exceeds 1000, compared to the original version, it should be discussed with the chief editor.

Manuscript Structure

The text must be formatted with 1.5-inch margins and be double-spaced.

Abstract and Keywords

All full articles should include an abstract of max. 150 words, as well as list of 3-8 keywords.

A clear and unambiguous abstract helps to speed up the review process. The abstract should contain (1) aim and focus of the manuscript, (2) an overall argument and question, (3) information about data collection and methodology, (4) the theoretical embedding of the article.

Instructions for Authors

Capitalization

Authors should be consistent in their use of capitalization. Overcapitalization should be avoided. The abbreviations 'vol.,' 'no.,' and 'pt.' are not normally capitalized.

Italics: The titles of works and periodicals should normally be italicized. Foreign words should also be italicized but note that many ordinary terms associated with Islamic practice, such as imam, zakat and 'id are no longer regarded as foreign.

Quotation

JOME uses single quotation marks for in-text quotes and for the titles of journal articles and chapter in books, with double quotations marks for quotes within quotes.

Headings

Headings should be flush left using sentence case:

This is a first level heading.

Bibliographical Reference System

Authors can use either 'in-text referencing', or 'footnote referencing', but all manuscripts should have a reference list at the end of the article.

be published as hard copy and as pdf online, we prefer page numbers possibly added by an eLocator reference.

In-text References

(Smith, 2019), (Smith, 2019: 56), (2019), (2019: 56), (ibid.).

Footnote References

1. Article in journal: Smith, John, 'Article in journal', Journal Name, 14 (1992), 142-53.
2. Article in edited book: Smith, John, 'Article in journal', in Book Name, John Smith (ed.) (Place: Publisher, Date), pp. 24-9.
3. Book: Smith, John, Book Name (Place: Publisher, Date), pp. 65-73.
4. If a reference in a footnote has been mentioned already in an earlier footnote, the footnote should give surname and a brief title only, e.g. Smith, Book, p. 23 or Smith, 'Article', p. 45. Do not use op.cit.
5. Works with more than three authors, the footnote citation should give the name of the first listed author followed by 'et al.' or 'and others' without intervening punctuation.
6. Titles of works in languages other than French, German, Italian, and Spanish will be given in the original language with a translation into English added after the title in square brackets. Titles in non-roman scripts will be given in the original script with a translation in English provided in square brackets, as above.

Webpage Reference

It is often sufficient simply to describe web pages and other website content in the text ('As of May 1, 2017, Yale's home page listed . . .'). If a more formal citation is needed, it may be styled in notes like the examples below. For a source that does not list a date of publication or revision, include an access date (as in example 2).

1. 'Privacy Policy,' Privacy & Terms, Google, last modified April 17, 2017, <https://www.google.com/policies/privacy/>.
2. 'About Yale: Yale Facts,' Yale University, accessed May 1, 2017, <https://www.yale.edu/about-yale/yale-facts>.

Figures

Diagrams, charts, maps, plans, and other line drawings must be submitted in camera-ready form. A list of captions, including the appropriate copyright acknowledgements, labelled Figure 1, Figure 2, etc. must be supplied. Photographs should be submitted in electronic format (JPEG or TIFF files) and should have a minimum of 300 dpi. Authors should ensure that the appropriate copyright for all illustrations has been obtained from the copyright-holder.

Publication

Proofs

Upon acceptance, an article proof will be sent to authors by e-mail to check carefully for factual and typographic errors. At this stage in the production process, only minor corrections are allowed. Alterations to the original manuscript at this stage will result in considerable delay in publication and, therefore, are not accepted unless charged to the author. Proofs should be returned promptly.

E-offprints

A PDF file of the article will be supplied free of charge by the publisher to authors for personal use. Brill is a RoMEO yellow publisher. The Author retains the right to self-archive the submitted (pre-peer-review) version of the article at any time. The submitted version of an article is the author's version that has not been peer-reviewed, nor had any value added to it by Brill (such as formatting or copy editing). The Author retains the right to self-archive the accepted (peer-reviewed) version without any embargo period. The accepted version means the version that has been accepted for publication and contains all revisions made after peer reviewing and copy editing but that has not yet been typeset in the publisher's lay-out. The publisher's lay-out must not be used in any repository or on any website (brill.com/page/selfarchiving/sharing-your-work-selfarchiving).

License to Publish

Publication Agreement

By submitting a manuscript, the author agrees to enter into a publication agreement if and when the article is accepted for publication. For that purpose, the author needs to sign the License to Publish form, which will be sent with the first proofs of the manuscript.

Open Access

Should the author wish to publish the article in Open Access, they can choose non-exclusive Open Access publication under a Creative Commons license in exchange for an Article Publication Charge (APC), upon signing a special Open Access Consent to Publish form.

More information on Open Access can be found on brill.com/openaccess.
